

Coffee To Cocktails

Coffee to Cocktails is a one day seminar which provides an overview of what is involved with raising alpacas and keeping it an enjoyable endeavor.

This is a one day class which will provide an overview of alpaca ranching. Topics and materials are designed for those looking to raise alpacas for fun or profit.

- How much time, effort or experience is necessary to care for alpacas
- What to look for in fleece & look out for in conformation
- How do genetics or show system play a part in the equation
- How much time, effort or experience is necessary to care for alpacas
- What type of facilities or pastures is needed.
- And More . . .

Advance registration is required. Class fee is $75 per couple; $ 50 for single registration.

Payment can be made by check or credit card.

Fee includes materials, lunch, beverages and an afternoon glass of wine, beer or cocktail.

Class Starts at 8:30am and finishes by about 4:30pm ... or so.

We anticipate some "spillage" into Sunday. We will be open for those who want to come back and spend some time with the alpacas or have more questions.

"Luck is what happens when preparation meets opportunity."
